Subject: Elder Contract

Hi Sean

Further to our discussion yesterday, the IPPI Hub would like to enter into a contact with Elder Barbara Dumont Hill (the Elder that has agreed to work with the IPPI Hub) to do the opening at the February 11 Fed Talk at INAC. Fed Talks at INAC begin with an Elder opening and we discussed it with INAC and they agreed it would be great if we could have Elder Barbara do the opening for us.

In addition, we wanted to include in the contract if possible the fees associated with the Elder hosting the blanket exercise (see links below) which is a reconciliation tool (developed by Elders) being used in schools and government to understand the impact of colonization. I personally experienced the exercise with the Nova Scotia government and it was an amazing tool to promote understanding and reconciliation. The Blanket Exercise itself takes about half an hour to 40 minutes, and should always be followed by a talking circle of at least half an hour. <http://kairosblanketexercise.org/>. We thought the IPPI Hub could contract with the Elder (who suggested the Department do this) and develop a learning event (it could even be at lunch) in collaboration with ACAP the Department's Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People.

Here is a link from a recent CBC article (January 16th) about how Carleton University just did the exercise.
<http://www.cbc.ca/news/canada/ottawa/blanket-exercise-teaches-history-from-an-indigenous-perspective-1.3400940>

We should have $5K left in the IPPI Hub contract under professional services, but I don't imagine it would cost that much. If you agree, we would need to contact the Elder in the next few days to see if she is available to come with us on February 11th and get a sense of cost and what date before the end of fiscal we could do the blanket exercise (and have enough time to promote it on JUST INFO)

Happy to chat,

Thanks

Stephanie

Dear Elder Barbara Dumont Hill,

Happy New Year! How are you? We hope this email finds you well.

We were wondering if you would be willing and able to speak with us sometime next week?

We wanted to touch base with you to talk with you about some of the projects we have been asked to do. Over the last couple of months we have been talking to people and hearing ideas and learning from folks who have been kind enough to share what they know with us. It has been both an exciting and humbling experience.

We have been asked to give a talk at Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada on February 11th from 1:00- to 3:00 to share what we are trying to do with the IPPI Hub and also do a "design exercise" with them (we haven't been able to figure that out yet). We were wondering if you would be willing to come with us and provide an opening for the session? We spoke with our new friend at INAC today and they are expecting about 50 people as well as people attending via teleconference from their regional offices.

When we last met you mentioned that you might be willing to facilitate the Blanket Exercise here at Justice Canada. We have been working on getting approvals for that and have just received permission, we would love to talk more about this when you have a chance too.

We have also been working on establishing our Mentoring Council and we have some ideas around that we would get your advice on as well.

All the best,

Stephanie

Good morning Stephanie,

It is nice to hear from you again and I guess as we are now into February I am late but I hope the Creator blesses you with peace and health all throughout this new year.

First I am available on February 11 and would certainly be happy to be with you at INAC for your meeting on that day. I am heading out this morning and I should be done by 1:00pm. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I am supposed to have an opening on Wednesday with Aboriginal Justice Directorate with the close on Thursday (although I am not entirely sure about these). [REDACTED] I am booked on Friday afternoon again for another Blanket Exercise and an opening on Friday evening. I will be glad to meet with you anywhere where you might have some time. Aside from the bookings I have I can accommodate you for your time and place of choice. I have nothing on Monday February 8 if that is better.

In regards to the Blanket Exercise we would to facilitate it for you. You can pick a couple of dates that are best for your group and let me know. It is forty five minutes for the exercise itself then maybe another forty five minutes for a circle after depending on the number of people. The circle is very important part of the exercise as many people want to talk about what they have heard. I know that those who think they are well informed about Indigenous People are often taken aback by how little they actually knew. Usually they are overwhelmed at the end of the exercise.

I would certainly be happy to see you again, let me know what best works, I am so sorry that this month is just becoming jammed packed.

With respect.

Barbara

Happy to help out with this event, Chris.

Sheena, please take the following steps when setting up an event in the Library:

- Contact Aline Brownrigg. She handles the bookings in the Library, and can tell you when it is available for your event. You'll need to keep her in the loop on when the set up and tear down of the event will take place.
- Luigi Silletta is the Accommodations contact you will likely deal with. He'll be responsible for setting up the event itself (e.g., chairs, stage, furniture moving, etc.).
- Cory Lohmann handles everything that has to do with videoconferencing and teleconferencing. The library can set up both services and provide monitors if you wish to involve the regions. Justice has two wireless microphones at its disposal.
- Once you have contacted Luigi, it's best to set up a meeting with him and Cory where you can scope out the set up in the library.
- Tip: You may note that the lighting in some sections of the library is inadequate for a speaking event. I am not sure if anything can be done about this, but you could raise the issue with Accommodations.

Let me know if you have further questions.

Thanks.

Hello Spencer and Alexandre,

I'm hoping that you can share some of your expertise with my IPPI Hub colleague (Sheena).

- Using the Library – Spencer, can you provide Sheena with details on who to contact when booking an event in the library
- Printing banners – Alexandre, do we have a standing offer with a print company? We want to print some IPPI Hub banners for upcoming events.
- Software – Alexandre, were you able to raise my concerns with IT at the last innovation council meeting? If yes, we are curious to know what the council thinks we should do.

Thanks

Awesome! There is a lot to organize we were thinking about having it in the Library, better than a boardroom, there would be lots of space.

I spoke to Elder Barbara Dumont Hill and she agreed to coordinate with Kairos. We wanted to do it before the end of fiscal as we have the funds for it this year.

It is forty five minutes for the exercise itself then maybe another forty five minutes for a circle after depending on the number of people—up to 100. We will need to pick a date and see if it works for the facilitators.

I also spoke to ACAP about it, we need to have a call with Jude Pattenden to discuss further, and hopefully we can coordinate with them as they are planning activities across the country as well.

Off the top of my head, we will need help with:

Writing an article for JustINFO

I hope Senior Managers will also attend, so assistance in getting them to attend would be great

Good Afternoon Everyone,

We are hoping you are able to join in a planning meeting for the proposed Blanket Exercise on Monday, March 7th from 1:00-1:30.

If you are not able to join in person but can join via teleconference please call 1-877-413-4792: the access code is: 962-1184#.

Since our initial discussion, we have been able to confirm the following potential arrangements:

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30 (Elder Barbara Dumont Hill and KAIROS have confirmed their availability for this date)

Where: Department of Justice Canada, 284 Wellington Street, EMB, Library (we have tentatively booked the Library for this date from 9-12)

Who: 25-50 Department of Justice Employees (need to discuss how to extend invitations, how to promote event)

We know that March 23rd will be a busy time for many people and that this will affect our ability to host a large event. However, we would like to discuss how we might hold a small to medium size event on March 23rd and see how it goes with Justice Employees and then decide if we should plan additional events in the future and would greatly appreciate your input.

Background:

The KAIROS Blanket Exercise is an interactive learning experience that teaches the Indigenous rights history. Developed in response to the 1996 Report of the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples—which recommended education on Canadian-Indigenous history as one of the key steps to reconciliation, the Blanket Exercise covers over 500 years of history in a one and a half hour participatory workshop.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator (or narrators) and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy. The exercise is followed by a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle.

Dear Colleagues,

Do you want to learn more about Indigenous history? Please join us for an interactive activity called the Blanket Exercise on March 23!

The KAIROS Blanket Exercise is an interactive learning experience that teaches Indigenous rights history. Developed in response to the 1996 Report of the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples—which recommended education about Canadian-Indigenous history as one of the key steps to reconciliation, the Blanket Exercise covers over 500 years of history in a two hour participatory workshop.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator (or narrators) and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy. The exercise is followed by a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People, the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Hi,

I ran this by my Unit, as well as Jude and Ronda. Please find in tracked changes our suggested changes and small suggestions for your consideration.

Also, I had a quick question. As per protocol, it is customary to offer tobacco to an Elder when asking for their guidance. Have efforts been made already to procure some tobacco for Elder Barbara Hill-Dumont? The purchase of tobacco requires DM financial approval, so if this has not yet been done, our area has some on hand that could be used for this activity.

Thanks,

It is super excellently incredibly awesome!

Thanks for your input – I've attached the revised invite.

The poster is also attached – many thanks to Sheena for preparing it for us ;)

Please don't hesitate to send comments on either document – by end of day would be appreciated.

Thanks for the reminder re: tobacco – if we could use some that your unit has Brittany that would be fantastic.

I will confirm with KAIROS but I believe the event will be in English only. I will also need to confirm about how to word Barbara's role as I believe that while she has worked with IPPI independently in the past she is coming to this event as part of KAIROS.

For next steps – I will send the final invite and poster out to us tomorrow morning and seek approvals on my side tomorrow with the aim of sending the final final translated version out to everyone for distribution early next week.

Happy to discuss (hope this makes sense!?) and thanks again for all of your help.

Dear Colleagues,

Do you want to learn more about Canadian history from an Indigenous perspective in an interactive and engaging way? We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 23 to participate in a Blanket Exercise!

What is a Blanket Exercise?

The Blanket Exercise, hosted by KAIROS, is an eye-opening learning experience that teaches the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English (TBC).

We look forward to seeing you there!

I offered our Elder tobacco when we discussed the blanket exercise before the INAC presentation. But the tobacco was really for the INAC exercise so if they have some we can offer to Barbara and [REDACTED] before the blanket exercise that would be great. I am out. I paid Karolyn for some of AJS tobacco for the last event. sounds like the meeting went really well yesterday. Sorry to leave you all alone. I will be back in town tonight.

Hi,

I ran this by my Unit, as well as Jude and Ronda. Please find in tracked changes our suggested changes and small suggestions for your consideration.

Also, I had a quick question. As per protocol, it is customary to offer tobacco to an Elder when asking for their guidance. Have efforts been made already to procure some tobacco for Elder Barbara Hill-Dumont? The purchase of tobacco requires DM financial approval, so if this has not yet been done, our area has some on hand that could be used for this activity.

Thanks,

Only one small comment – can we add the link to the KAIROS website back in to the text? It might be helpful for people who are unsure about whether they want to attend to have access to more information. Their site features a couple of videos which give a good sense on what the exercise is all about too. Other than this one small suggestion, looks great to me!

In terms of the tobacco, I will connect with you separately to make sure you have what you need. ☺

Good afternoon [REDACTED] and Barbara,

We are excited about the Blanket Exercise that is coming up and just have a few questions.

So are we!

Will the Blanket Exercise take place in English and French or English only?

The exercise will be in English only.

We drew heavily on some wording from the KAIROS website for the invitation but wanted to see whether the wording below is OK with you – please let us know if something else is preferable:

“Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle.”

This wording is fine with me. Barbara, is it okay with you?

Many thanks and please don't hesitate to give me a call!

Good afternoon [REDACTED]

It was nice speaking with you on Friday. We are very excited about participating in this exercise here at Justice Canada. Thank you so much for facilitating this!

Please find below the arrangements we have so far, we are happy to change as needed:

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30 (please let me know how much time you will need to set up and we can make sure there are folks around to help)

If there is a space large enough to accommodate laying down about 20-25 blankets, it shouldn't take more than 15-20 minutes to set up for the exercise. We would plan to arrive around 9:00 am. Ideally, there will be enough chairs for all the participants set up in a circle. The blankets will go inside the circle.

Where: Department of Justice Canada, 284 Wellington Street, East Memorial Building, Library

Who: 25-50 Department of Justice Headquarters Employees

Will you need a microphone and a podium or a few microphones? Please let me know if there is anything you will need for AV.

No podium will be needed. If it's a large space, with bad acoustics, it would be helpful to have at least one microphone to ensure that everyone hears the script, especially if we have 40-50 people. If it's a small space, it may not be necessary. Maybe it would be best to have two microphones set up and standing by in case we need them.

For the contract, could you kindly provide the following information (we will need it to set up KAIROS as a vendor in our system):

Name: KAIROS: Canadian Ecumenical Justice Initiatives

Mailing Address: 211-211 Bronson Avenue, Ottawa, ON K1R 6H5

Fax # 613.235.1302

Phone # 613.235.9956 ext 221

Please do not hesitate to get in touch if there is anything that you need or any information I can provide. I am going to be away (Tuesday until Friday) but my colleague Marisa Dowswell can help you with anything you might need, I have copied her on the email.

Thanks again to both of you for supporting this work!

Dear all,

Please find attached the latest version of the invitation and poster. All outstanding questions have been answered and this version will be going for approvals to DG/Programs Branch today. I don't think the need for other approvals was raised at our last meeting but please feel free to send this version to anyone else who should take a look.

I will send out the final approved English and French versions early next week for distribution.

Only one small comment – can we add the link to the KAIROS website back in to the text? It might be helpful for people who are unsure about whether they want to attend to have access to more information. Their site features a couple of videos which give a good sense on what the exercise is all about too. Other than this one small suggestion, looks great to me!

In terms of the tobacco, I will connect with you separately to make sure you have what you need. ☺

Thanks for all of your work pulling together this exciting event.

It is super excellently incredibly awesome!

Thanks for your input – I've attached the revised invite.

The poster is also attached – many thanks to Sheena for preparing it for us ;)

Please don't hesitate to send comments on either document – by end of day would be appreciated.

Thanks for the reminder re: tobacco – if we could use some that your unit has Brittany that would be fantastic.

I will confirm with KAIROS but I believe the event will be in English only. I will also need to confirm about how to word Barbara's role as I believe that while she has worked with IPPI independently in the past she is coming to this event as part of KAIROS.

For next steps – I will send the final invite and poster out to us tomorrow morning and seek approvals on my side tomorrow with the aim of sending the final final translated version out to everyone for distribution early next week.

Happy to discuss (hope this makes sense!?) and thanks again for all of your help.

Dear Colleagues,

Do you want to learn more about Canadian history from an Indigenous perspective in an interactive and engaging way? We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 23 to participate in a Blanket Exercise!

What is a Blanket Exercise?

The Blanket Exercise, hosted by KAIROS, is an eye-opening learning experience that teaches the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle. Please note that the circle is as important as the exercise itself.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Hi Elizabeth,

As discussed, please find attached the invitation and poster for the Blanket Exercise on March 23.

The documents have been reviewed by the co-sponsors of the event (the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), AJS, YJSIS, ACW and IPPI Hub), including by a communications advisor who works with ACAP.

As it is a busy time of year for everyone, this event will be smaller in scope (25-50 people) with the intention of planning a larger event in the summer, perhaps close to National Aboriginal Day. ACAP is keen to work with the IPPI Hub moving forward and we discussed possibly inviting the Minister for this larger event.

In terms of distribution of the invitation – it will go out through ACAP's network as well as to the directorates of the other co-sponsors, we will also send it to AAP. You mentioned yesterday you may want to send it to SMT as well.

Let us know of any changes to the documents or the approach – happy to revise.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle. Please note that the circle is as important as the exercise itself.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English.

Good morning [REDACTED]

A quick clarification – it looks like KAIROS is in our system but the address is in Thunder Bay – is it OK to use this address for invoicing?

If we will be using the Ottawa address I have been advised that we need a business or GST #.

Thanks and please don't hesitate to give us a call if needed.

Good afternoon [REDACTED] and Barbara,

We are excited about the Blanket Exercise that is coming up and just have a few questions.

So are we!

Will the Blanket Exercise take place in English and French or English only?

The exercise will be in English only.

We drew heavily on some wording from the KAIROS website for the invitation but wanted to see whether the wording below is OK with you – please let us know if something else is preferable:

"Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle."

This wording is fine with me. Barbara, is it okay with you?

Many thanks and please don't hesitate to give me a call!

Subject: Justice Canada Blanket Exercise

Good afternoon [REDACTED]

It was nice speaking with you on Friday. We are very excited about participating in this exercise here at Justice Canada. Thank you so much for facilitating this!

Please find below the arrangements we have so far, we are happy to change as needed:

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30 (please let me know how much time you will need to set up and we can make sure there are folks around to help)

If there is a space large enough to accommodate laying down about 20-25 blankets, it shouldn't take more than 15-20 minutes to set up for the exercise. We would plan to arrive around 9:00 am. Ideally, there will be enough chairs for all the participants set up in a circle. The blankets will go inside the circle.

Where: Department of Justice Canada, 284 Wellington Street, East Memorial Building, Library

Who: 25-50 Department of Justice Headquarters Employees

Will you need a microphone and a podium or a few microphones? Please let me know if there is anything you will need for AV.

No podium will be needed. If it's a large space, with bad acoustics, it would be helpful to have at least one microphone to ensure that everyone hears the script, especially if we have 40-50 people. If it's a small space, it may not be necessary. Maybe it would be best to have two microphones set up and standing by in case we need them.

For the contract, could you kindly provide the following information (we will need it to set up KAIROS as a vendor in our system):

Name: KAIROS: Canadian Ecumenical Justice Initiatives

Mailing Address: 211-211 Bronson Avenue, Ottawa, ON K1R 6H5

Fax # 613.235.1302
Phone # 613.235.9956 ext 221
Business# or GST # N/A

Please do not hesitate to get in touch if there is anything that you need or any information I can provide. I am going to be away (Tuesday until Friday) but my colleague Marisa Dowswell can help you with anything you might need, I have copied her on the email.

Thanks again to both of you for supporting this work!

Chers collègues,

Souhaitez-vous en apprendre davantage sur l'histoire canadienne, d'un point de vue autochtone et d'une manière interactive et dynamique? Nous vous invitons à vous joindre à nous le mercredi 23 mars pour participer à un exercice des couvertures!

Qu'est-ce que l'exercice des couvertures?

L'exercice des couvertures, animé par le groupe KAIROS, est une expérience d'apprentissage révélatrice qui enseigne les relations historiques et contemporaines entre les Autochtones et les non Autochtones au Canada.

Les participants à l'exercice des couvertures endossent les rôles des Autochtones au Canada. Debout sur des couvertures qui représentent le territoire, ils traversent plus de 500 ans d'histoire, notamment la période avant l'arrivée des Européens, la conclusion de traités, la colonisation et la résistance. Ils sont dirigés par des animateurs qui représentent un narrateur et les colonisateurs européens. Les participants sont plongés dans l'expérience en lisant un parchemin et en portant des cartes qui déterminent leur destinée à la fin. En impliquant les participants à un niveau intellectuel et émotionnel, l'exercice des couvertures éduque de manière efficace et renforce l'empathie.

À la suite de l'exercice, l'ainée Barbara Dumont-Hill et le groupe KAIROS animeront ensemble une séance de compte rendu dans laquelle les participants ont l'occasion de discuter de leur expérience de groupe dans le cadre d'un cercle de discussion. Veuillez noter que le cercle est aussi important que l'exercice en tant que tel.

L'activité est parrainée par le Comité consultatif des Autochtones (CCDA), la Stratégie de la justice applicable aux Autochtones, le Programme d'assistance parajudiciaire aux Autochtones, la Section de la justice applicable aux jeunes et des initiatives stratégiques et le Centre d'innovation des politiques et programmes autochtones (Centre d'IPPA).

Quand : Mercredi 23 mars 2016, de 9 h 30 à 11 h 30
Où : Bibliothèque du ministère de la Justice Canada

Veuillez RSVP à l'adresse IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca et n'hésitez pas à communiquer avec nous si vous avez des questions. On demande aux participants de mentionner, lors de leur inscription, les mesures d'adaptation dont ils ont besoin. Veuillez noter que l'activité se déroulera en anglais.

Good afternoon [REDACTED] and Barbara,

We are excited about the Blanket Exercise that is coming up and just have a few questions.

So are we!

Will the Blanket Exercise take place in English and French or English only?

The exercise will be in English only.

We drew heavily on some wording from the KAIROS website for the invitation but wanted to see whether the wording below is OK with you – please let us know if something else is preferable:

“Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle.”

This wording is fine with me. Barbara, is it okay with you?

Many thanks and please don't hesitate to give me a call!

Good afternoon [REDACTED]

It was nice speaking with you on Friday. We are very excited about participating in this exercise here at Justice Canada. Thank you so much for facilitating this!

Please find below the arrangements we have so far, we are happy to change as needed:

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30 (please let me know how much time you will need to set up and we can make sure there are folks around to help)

If there is a space large enough to accommodate laying down about 20-25 blankets, it shouldn't take more than 15-20 minutes to set up for the exercise. We would plan to arrive around 9:00 am. Ideally, there will be enough chairs for all the participants set up in a circle. The blankets will go inside the circle.

Where: Department of Justice Canada, 284 Wellington Street, East Memorial Building, Library

Who: 25-50 Department of Justice Headquarters Employees

Will you need a microphone and a podium or a few microphones? Please let me know if there is anything you will need for AV.

No podium will be needed. If it's a large space, with bad acoustics, it would be helpful to have at least one microphone to ensure that everyone hears the script, especially if we have 40-50 people. If it's a small space, it may not be necessary. Maybe it would be best to have two microphones set up and standing by in case we need them.

For the contract, could you kindly provide the following information (we will need it to set up KAIROS as a vendor in our system):

Name: KAIROS: Canadian Ecumenical Justice Initiatives

Mailing Address: 211-211 Bronson Avenue, Ottawa, ON K1R 6H5

Fax # 613.235.1302

Phone # 613.235.9956 ext 221

Business# or GST # N/A

Please do not hesitate to get in touch if there is anything that you need or any information I can provide. I am going to be away (Tuesday until Friday) but my colleague Marisa Dowsnell can help you with anything you might need, I have copied her on the email.

Thanks again to both of you for supporting this work!

Dear Colleagues,

Do you want to learn more about Canadian history from an Indigenous perspective in an interactive and engaging way? We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 23 to participate in a Blanket Exercise!

What is a Blanket Exercise?

The Blanket Exercise, hosted by KAIROS, is an eye-opening learning experience that teaches the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle. Please note that the circle is as important as the exercise itself.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Chers collègues,

Souhaitez-vous en apprendre davantage sur l'histoire canadienne, d'un point de vue autochtone et d'une manière interactive et dynamique? Nous vous invitons à vous joindre à nous le mercredi 23 mars pour participer à un exercice des couvertures!

Qu'est-ce que l'exercice des couvertures?

L'exercice des couvertures, animé par le groupe KAIROS, est une expérience d'apprentissage révélatrice qui enseigne les relations historiques et contemporaines entre les Autochtones et les non Autochtones au Canada.

Les participants à l'exercice des couvertures endossent les rôles des Autochtones au Canada. Debout sur des couvertures qui représentent le territoire, ils traversent plus de 500 ans d'histoire, notamment la période avant l'arrivée des Européens, la conclusion de traités, la colonisation et la résistance. Ils sont dirigés par des animateurs qui représentent un narrateur et les colonisateurs européens. Les participants sont plongés dans l'expérience en lisant un parchemin et en portant des cartes qui déterminent leur destinée à la fin. En impliquant les participants à un niveau intellectuel et émotionnel, l'exercice des couvertures éduque de manière efficace et renforce l'empathie.

À la suite de l'exercice, l'aînée Barbara Dumont-Hill et le groupe KAIROS animeront ensemble une séance de compte rendu dans laquelle les participants ont l'occasion de discuter de leur expérience de groupe dans le cadre d'un cercle de discussion. Veuillez noter que le cercle est aussi important que l'exercice en tant que tel.

L'activité est parrainée par le Comité consultatif des Autochtones (CCDA), la Stratégie de la justice applicable aux Autochtones, le Programme d'assistance parajudiciaire aux Autochtones, la Section de la justice applicable aux jeunes et des initiatives stratégiques et le Centre d'innovation des politiques et programmes autochtones (Centre d'IPPA).

Quand : Mercredi 23 mars 2016, de 9 h 30 à 11 h 30

Où : Bibliothèque du ministère de la Justice Canada

Veuillez RSVP à l'adresse IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca et n'hésitez pas à communiquer avec nous si vous avez des questions. On demande aux participants de mentionner, lors de leur inscription, les mesures d'adaptation dont ils ont besoin. Veuillez noter que l'activité se déroulera en anglais.

Nous avons hâte de vous y voir!

We are excited about the Blanket Exercise that is coming up and just have a few questions.

Good afternoon [REDACTED]

It was nice speaking with you on Friday. We are very excited about participating in this exercise here at Justice Canada. Thank you so much for facilitating this!

Please find below the arrangements we have so far, we are happy to change as needed:

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30 (please let me know how much time you will need to set up and we can make sure there are folks around to help)

If there is a space large enough to accommodate laying down about 20-25 blankets, it shouldn't take more than 15-20 minutes to set up for the exercise. We would plan to arrive around 9:00 am. Ideally, there will be enough chairs for all the participants set up in a circle. The blankets will go inside the circle.

Where: Department of Justice Canada, 284 Wellington Street, East Memorial Building, Library

Who: 25-50 Department of Justice Headquarters Employees

Will you need a microphone and a podium or a few microphones? Please let me know if there is anything you will need for AV.

No podium will be needed. If it's a large space, with bad acoustics, it would be helpful to have at least one microphone to ensure that everyone hears the script, especially if we have 40-50 people. If it's a small space, it may not be necessary. Maybe it would be best to have two microphones set up and standing by in case we need them.

For the contract, could you kindly provide the following information (we will need it to set up KAIROS as a vendor in our system):

Guideline on Completing the Recipient Electronic Payment Registration Request Form

INTRODUCTION

The Government of Canada has announced that direct deposit will replace cheques as the method of payment. As a result, for Justice Canada, direct deposit will be mandatory as of April 1st, 2014. The Department is asking you to sign up for direct deposit by completing the "Recipient Electronic Payment Registration Request form".

There are two electronic payment modes available:

1. Direct Deposit (DD) - Once payments are deposited, DOJ will send the following information by e-mail: amount of payment, date of payment, invoice number, DOJ reference number, and brief description of the payment. This e-mail notification will act in lieu of a cheque stub.
2. Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) - To enrol in EDI you must contact your financial institution to ensure that the account is EDI-capable. There may be a fee for this service, as the financial institution notifies its clients according to its own criteria.

Changes to bank account used

If you wish to make any changes to the bank account used for payments (change of address, financial institution, branch, account number, etc.) you must complete a new Recipient Electronic Payment Registration Request form. When you request one of these changes, DO NOT CLOSE the present account until you receive your payment in accordance with that change.

COMPLETING OF FORM

There are three sections of the Recipient Electronic Payment Registration Request form that must be completed by the recipient.

1 - TYPE OF REQUEST

Please complete this section by filling out one of the three request types described below.

New request

If you choose to sign up for electronic payments with DOJ, please check the "New request" box and indicate which mode of payment you wish to use: DD or EDI.

Change

If you are already registered for electronic payments with DOJ, however, wish to modify your banking information or mode of electronic payment, please select the "Change" box and mark all other boxes that apply to your change request.

2 - RECIPIENT INFORMATION AND AUTHORIZATION

This section must be completed, signed and dated by the appropriate person (or persons) in order to authorize the electronic payment enrolment request, or to modify or cancel electronic payments.

If the recipient is an individual

Please enter your name, address and telephone number AS WELL AS AN E-MAIL ADDRESS so that DOJ can send e-mail notices and confirm receipt of payment. Also, you must sign the form in this section in order to authorize your request.

If the recipient is an organization

Please enter the name and address of your organization and make sure to complete the "Name of payment contact" field with the name of the contact person from your organization. Please also include the contact person's telephone number AND E-MAIL ADDRESS so that DOJ can send e-mail notices and confirm receipt of payment.

Also, authorized representative(s) must include their name, position, telephone number and signature, in order to authorize the request.

This section allows for up to two people to sign the form, in cases where the recipient requires two signatures for authorization, to receive, modify or cancel electronic payments.

3 - BANKING INFORMATION

If you attach a void cheque

Please attach a void cheque and complete fields 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this section. The void cheque must be from the account you wish to use for electronic payments. A sample of a void cheque is provided below identifying where the transit, bank and account numbers are located.

Name / Nom P.O. Box / C.P. 000 City / Ville, Canada H0H 0H0		Cheque No. N° de chèque 0000000

"Void" «Nul»		Dollars
Signature		000000"0
Transit No. N° de la succursale	Bank No. N° de l'institution financière	Account No. N° du compte

If you do not attach a void cheque

If you do not provide a void cheque, the financial institution must validate the banking information by completing fields 5, 6 and 7 of the form. The financial institution must provide the name, address and telephone number of the financial institution, bank stamp and sign the form.

4 - FOR DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE CANADA ONLY

This section is strictly reserved for DOJ's use only.

Good afternoon [REDACTED] and Barbara,

We are excited about the Blanket Exercise that is coming up and just have a few questions.

So are we!

Will the Blanket Exercise take place in English and French or English only?

The exercise will be in English only.

We drew heavily on some wording from the KAIROS website for the invitation but wanted to see whether the wording below is OK with you – please let us know if something else is preferable:

“Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle.”

This wording is fine with me. Barbara, is it okay with you?

Many thanks and please don't hesitate to give me a call!

Subject: Justice Canada Blanket Exercise

Good afternoon [REDACTED]

It was nice speaking with you on Friday. We are very excited about participating in this exercise here at Justice Canada. Thank you so much for facilitating this!

Please find below the arrangements we have so far, we are happy to change as needed:

When: March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30 (please let me know how much time you will need to set up and we can make sure there are folks around to help)

If there is a space large enough to accommodate laying down about 20-25 blankets, it shouldn't take more than 15-20 minutes to set up for the exercise. We would plan to arrive around 9:00 am. Ideally, there will be enough chairs for all the participants set up in a circle. The blankets will go inside the circle.

Where: Department of Justice Canada, 284 Wellington Street, East Memorial Building, Library

Who: 25-50 Department of Justice Headquarters Employees

Will you need a microphone and a podium or a few microphones? Please let me know if there is anything you will need for AV.

No podium will be needed. If it's a large space, with bad acoustics, it would be helpful to have at least one microphone to ensure that everyone hears the script, especially if we have 40-50 people. If it's a small space, it may not be necessary. Maybe it would be best to have two microphones set up and standing by in case we need them.

For the contract, could you kindly provide the following information (we will need it to set up KAIROS as a vendor in our system):

Name: KAIROS: Canadian Ecumenical Justice Initiatives

Mailing Address: 211-211 Bronson Avenue, Ottawa, ON K1R 6H5

Fax # 613.235.1302

Phone # 613.235.9956 ext 221

Business# or GST # N/A

Please do not hesitate to get in touch if there is anything that you need or any information I can provide. I am going to be away (Tuesday until Friday) but my colleague Marisa Dowsell can help you with anything you might need, I have copied her on the email.

Thanks again to both of you for supporting this work!

Hi Marisa,

We just made the pouch of tobacco this morning, and we will absolutely bring it tomorrow. I will try to make it to the office as early as possible, but I will likely arrive just before 9 am. Is that too late to meet you in the Library?

Thanks,

Hi Brittany,

You had kindly offered that we could use some of ACAPs tobacco for the event tomorrow – is that still OK?

What would be the best way to arrange this? We will be in the library from around 8:45 tomorrow morning...

Thanks!

Dear Colleagues,

Do you want to learn more about Canadian history from an Indigenous perspective in an interactive and engaging way? We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 23 to participate in a Blanket Exercise!

What is a Blanket Exercise?

The Blanket Exercise, hosted by KAIROS, is an eye-opening learning experience that teaches the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle. Please note that the circle is as important as the exercise itself.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Blanket Exercise

Chers collègues,

Souhaitez-vous en apprendre davantage sur l'histoire canadienne, d'un point de vue autochtone et d'une manière interactive et dynamique? Nous vous invitons à vous joindre à nous le mercredi 23 mars pour participer à un exercice des couvertures!

Qu'est-ce que l'exercice des couvertures?

L'exercice des couvertures, animé par le groupe KAIROS, est une expérience d'apprentissage révélatrice qui enseigne les relations historiques et contemporaines entre les Autochtones et les non Autochtones au Canada.

Les participants à l'exercice des couvertures endossent les rôles des Autochtones au Canada. Debout sur des couvertures qui représentent le territoire, ils traversent plus de 500 ans d'histoire, notamment la période avant l'arrivée des Européens, la conclusion de traités, la colonisation et la résistance. Ils sont dirigés par des animateurs qui représentent un narrateur et les colonisateurs européens. Les participants sont plongés dans l'expérience en lisant un parchemin et en portant des cartes qui déterminent leur destinée à la fin. En impliquant les participants à un niveau intellectuel et émotionnel, l'exercice des couvertures éduque de manière efficace et renforce l'empathie.

À la suite de l'exercice, l'aînée Barbara Dumont-Hill et le groupe KAIROS animeront ensemble une séance de compte rendu dans laquelle les participants ont l'occasion de discuter de leur expérience de groupe dans le cadre d'un cercle de discussion. Veuillez noter que le cercle est aussi important que l'exercice en tant que tel.

L'activité est parrainée par le Comité consultatif des Autochtones (CCDA), la Stratégie de la justice applicable aux Autochtones, le Programme d'assistance parajudiciaire aux Autochtones, la Section de la justice applicable aux jeunes et des initiatives stratégiques et le Centre d'innovation des politiques et programmes autochtones (Centre d'IPPA).

Quand : Mercredi 23 mars 2016, de 9 h 30 à 11 h 30

Où : Bibliothèque du ministère de la Justice Canada

Veuillez RSVP à l'adresse IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca et n'hésitez pas à communiquer avec nous si vous avez des questions. On demande aux participants de mentionner, lors de leur inscription, les mesures d'adaptation dont ils ont besoin. Veuillez noter que l'activité se déroulera en anglais.

Nous avons hâte de vous y voir!

Dear Colleagues,

Do you want to learn more about Canadian history from an Indigenous perspective in an interactive and engaging way? We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 23 to participate in a Blanket Exercise!

What is a Blanket Exercise?

The Blanket Exercise, hosted by KAIROS, is an eye-opening learning experience that teaches the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle. Please note that the circle is as important as the exercise itself.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30

Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Chers collègues,

Souhaitez-vous en apprendre davantage sur l'histoire canadienne, d'un point de vue autochtone et d'une manière interactive et dynamique? Nous vous invitons à vous joindre à nous le mercredi 23 mars pour participer à un exercice des couvertures!

Qu'est-ce que l'exercice des couvertures?

L'exercice des couvertures, animé par le groupe KAIROS, est une expérience d'apprentissage révélatrice qui enseigne les relations historiques et contemporaines entre les Autochtones et les non Autochtones au Canada.

Les participants à l'exercice des couvertures endossent les rôles des Autochtones au Canada. Debout sur des couvertures qui représentent le territoire, ils traversent plus de 500 ans d'histoire, notamment la période avant l'arrivée des Européens, la conclusion de traités, la colonisation et la résistance. Ils sont dirigés par des animateurs qui représentent un narrateur et les colonisateurs européens. Les participants sont plongés dans l'expérience en lisant un parchemin et en portant des cartes qui déterminent leur destinée à la fin. En impliquant les participants à un niveau intellectuel et émotionnel, l'exercice des couvertures éduque de manière efficace et renforce l'empathie.

À la suite de l'exercice, l'ainée Barbara Dumont-Hill et le groupe KAIROS animeront ensemble une séance de compte rendu dans laquelle les participants ont l'occasion de discuter de leur expérience de groupe dans le cadre d'un cercle de discussion. Veuillez noter que le cercle est aussi important que l'exercice en tant que tel.

L'activité est parrainée par le Comité consultatif des Autochtones (CCDA), la Stratégie de la justice applicable aux Autochtones, le Programme d'assistance parajudiciaire aux Autochtones, la Section de la justice applicable aux jeunes et des initiatives stratégiques et le Centre d'innovation des politiques et programmes autochtones (Centre d'IPPA).

Quand : Mercredi 23 mars 2016, de 9 h 30 à 11 h 30

Où : Bibliothèque du ministère de la Justice Canada

Veuillez RSVP à l'adresse IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca et n'hésitez pas à communiquer avec nous si vous avez des questions. On demande aux participants de mentionner, lors de leur inscription, les mesures d'adaptation dont ils ont besoin. Veuillez noter que l'activité se déroulera en anglais.

Nous avons hâte de vous y voir!

Good morning, Stephanie and Marisa.

Thank you once again, very much, for the opportunity to facilitate the KAIROS Blanket Exercise with some of the DoJ staff. Barbara, Larry and I agreed it was one of our most memorable and positive experiences with the exercise. We look forward to doing more with you. As I said, all you need to do is invite us! ☺

Sincere apologies for messing up the invoice, and for not getting it to you yesterday, as I said I would. The day got away from me. I think the one I've attached this time gets it right, but don't hesitate to let me know if changes are needed.

Warm regards and all the best, and have a great weekend!

Hi Stephanie,

I wanted to touch base with you to thank you again for putting together the ability to bring the KBE into your work place. [REDACTED] had a conversation about how powerful it felt to be in the centre of that library in the Justice Building doing this exercise. We all said we felt such emotion. We all feel emotional at different parts of the exercise but this one held something so different. [REDACTED] said he was so glad that we had asked him to be part of this one with us. He is so amazing, so knowledgeable. I don't think any of us will ever forget that day. I felt like there was another hand drumming with me, and singing with me, I have never felt anywhere else I have sung that song so many times in so many places.

My apology that we ran longer than we anticipated, I think [REDACTED] talked a bit longer to give more background which we all felt was important. We hope you did too. I did try to talk less as I normally give more of my experience which people usually get a lot from but I knew we were way over where we needed to be when the exercise itself was over.

Thank you again [REDACTED] hope you are sharing this weekend with the love of family and friends.

Do you want to learn more about Canadian history from an Indigenous perspective in an interactive and engaging way? We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 23 to participate in a Blanket Exercise!

What is a Blanket Exercise?

The Blanket Exercise, hosted by KAIROS, is an eye-opening learning experience that teaches the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Blanket Exercise participants take on the roles of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Standing on blankets that represent the land, they walk through over 500 years of history, including pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. They are directed by facilitators representing a narrator and the European colonizers. Participants are drawn into the experience by reading scrolls and carrying cards which ultimately determine their outcomes. By engaging on an emotional and intellectual level, the Blanket Exercise effectively educates and increases empathy.

Following the exercise, Elder Barbara Dumont-Hill and KAIROS will jointly moderate a debriefing session in which participants have the opportunity to discuss the experience as a group in the form of a talking circle. Please note that the circle is as important as the exercise itself.

This event is sponsored by the Advisory Committee on Aboriginal People (ACAP), the Aboriginal Justice Strategy, the Aboriginal Courtwork Program, the Youth Justice and Strategic Initiatives Section and the Indigenous Policy and Program Innovation (IPPI) Hub.

When: Wednesday, March 23, 2016 from 9:30-11:30
Where: Library of the Department of Justice Canada

Please RSVP to IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Attendees are requested to mention, when registering, any accommodation needs they may have. Please note this event is offered in English.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Chers collègues,

Souhaitez-vous en apprendre davantage sur l'histoire canadienne, d'un point de vue autochtone et d'une manière interactive et dynamique? Nous vous invitons à vous joindre à nous le mercredi 23 mars pour participer à un exercice des couvertures!

Qu'est-ce que l'exercice des couvertures?

L'exercice des couvertures, animé par le groupe KAIROS, est une expérience d'apprentissage révélatrice qui enseigne les relations historiques et contemporaines entre les Autochtones et les non Autochtones au Canada.

Les participants à l'exercice des couvertures endossent les rôles des Autochtones au Canada. Debout sur des couvertures qui représentent le territoire, ils traversent plus de 500 ans d'histoire, notamment la période avant l'arrivée des Européens, la conclusion de traités, la colonisation et la résistance. Ils sont dirigés par des animateurs qui représentent un narrateur et les colonisateurs européens. Les participants sont plongés dans l'expérience en lisant un parchemin et en portant des cartes qui déterminent leur destinée à la fin. En impliquant les participants à un niveau intellectuel et émotionnel, l'exercice des couvertures éduque de manière efficace et renforce l'empathie.

À la suite de l'exercice, l'ainée Barbara Dumont-Hill et le groupe KAIROS animeront ensemble une séance de compte rendu dans laquelle les participants ont l'occasion de discuter de leur expérience de groupe dans le cadre d'un cercle de discussion. Veuillez noter que le cercle est aussi important que l'exercice en tant que tel.

L'activité est parrainée par le Comité consultatif des Autochtones (CCDA), la Stratégie de la justice applicable aux Autochtones, le Programme d'assistance parajudiciaire aux Autochtones, la Section de la justice applicable aux jeunes et des initiatives stratégiques et le Centre d'innovation des politiques et programmes autochtones (Centre d'IPPA).

Quand : Mercredi 23 mars 2016, de 9 h 30 à 11 h 30

Où : Bibliothèque du ministère de la Justice Canada

Veuillez RSVP à l'adresse IPPIHub@justice.gc.ca et n'hésitez pas à communiquer avec nous si vous avez des questions. On demande aux participants de mentionner, lors de leur inscription, les mesures d'adaptation dont ils ont besoin. Veuillez noter que l'activité se déroulera en anglais.

Nous avons hâte de vous y voir!

Hello, we work on the Employment Equity portfolio, and are looking into holding a Blanket Exercise after the positive feedback the below event received – would you be able to tell us the approximate cost of the session for our budget planning purposes?

Thank you for your help,

Hi Marisa,

I was given your name by [REDACTED] of Kairos. We want to host a Blanket Exercise here at Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada (ISED) next month, but our finance folks are questioning about how payment can flow to Kairos. It looks like from what Kairos has indicated that you just had Kairos register for direct deposit and issue an invoice. Did you need to sign an MOU with them?

A comment from our finance officer: "I am not sure how we do this just by asking them to send us an invoice. We have to have some form of expenditure initiation."

Anyway, I am hoping you will be able to assist me so that we can proceed. Do you have a finance contact that I could put my finance folks in touch with directly? Or can you outline the steps that you took to permit the funding of the Exercise?

I apologize but it took a long time to get your contact information from Kairos, and now I need your response on a fairly urgent basis. I hope to hear from you soon.

Thank you,

Jena
